

Sacred Heart Home Educators

2023-2024 Information Booklet

Mission and History of SHHE

There was a time when the only known Catholic homeschooler in our area was Chris Moleski. She was contacted by Kelly Beck, who in 1998 began to gather families together, and slowly the numbers grew. The purpose of our little group was to provide loving support for each other as we took on the often difficult and demanding task of educating our children. This remains our foundation. We are a support group; each of us is called to serve other members who are in need.

We are named Sacred Heart Home Educators because it is the love of Jesus flowing from His Sacred Heart that enables us to support and love each other. Consequently, our core group gathering is on the First Friday of each month, the devotion based on a promise made by our Lord Jesus to St. Margaret Mary Alacoque:

*I promise you in the excessive Mercy of My Heart that My all-powerful Love will grant to all those who communicate on the First Friday in nine consecutive months the Grace of Final Penitence;
they shall not die in My disgrace nor without receiving the Sacraments;
My Divine Heart shall be their safe refuge in this last moment.*

On the nine First Fridays of our school year we gather for Mass, then for fellowship and to learn more about the beautiful and rich traditions of our Catholic faith. During the first few years, we would gather at a park – but usually at the Mangan house – for times of praying the rosary and extra fellowship during the week. Then a Little Flowers group formed for our girls, again held at the Mangan house. After a while, our group began to overflow that welcoming home, and we moved our activities to Good Shepherd, thanks to the gracious hospitality of Fr. Foley and the members of the parish. Our group has continued to grow and now offers many more opportunities, including co-op classes and field trips, and through them, we have shared many hours of fellowship and support. Our core, however, remains the devotion to the Sacred Heart and to our First Friday gatherings.

During this time of formation and growth, Sacred Heart Home Educators defined and summarized our mission, and we were blessed for a time to have Dr. Tom Neal as our advisor who helped put our mission statement into words:

The Sacred Heart Home Educators is an association of Catholic families in the Tallahassee area whose central commitment is to the formation of our children in every dimension of their life, within the fullness of the Roman Catholic Tradition. Our cooperative organization is meant to foster educational excellence in a community of families bound together by charity, founded on a faith that is solidly in communion with the magisterial authority of the Catholic Church, united in mind and heart with our Holy Father and our local Bishop, and organically linked to the life of our respective parishes. The foundation of this cooperative educational work is the belief that God has entrusted to parents the primary responsibility for forming our children in body, mind and spirit, and that that work is best carried out in a communion of families that are each one a domestic Church.

We are an association of Catholic families raising our children within the fullness of the Roman Catholic Tradition. While SHHE welcomes non-members to attend First Friday Masses with the group, SHHE members must be parishioners of a Catholic church in order to preserve the Catholic culture and the reason for the existence of Sacred Heart Home Educators.

Homeschoolers are inherently diverse, like a pile of multi-colored tiles – each beautiful on its own but chaotic when thrown together. Then God picks up a beautiful blue tile and places it lovingly into His design. He continues with a deep green tile, then an orange, a turquoise, a purple, a brilliant red, and crowns it all with pure gold. A beautiful mosaic emerges, each tile representing a different family with a unique color, held together by, the love flowing from the Sacred Heart of Jesus. This is a mosaic that somehow miraculously holds more and more colors without the picture becoming distorted as long as the eye stays focused on the Sacred Heart.

Dear Sacred Heart of Jesus,
Remember that we are consecrated and belong to
You, Bless and protect us all, Make our Homes a shrine of Your love and
Your Grace, Strengthen the bond of affection that unites us together, Help us to bear one another's burdens in peace and harmony and unselfishness, Keep us always near to You and to Your Blessed Mother.

General Homeschooling Information

Florida Statute defines homeschooling as the “sequentially progressive instruction of a student directed by his or her parent or guardian in order to satisfy the requirement for compulsory education as defined in Florida Statutes 232.01.” No specific curriculum is prescribed. When a family decides to homeschool their children, the parent must complete a letter of intent and submit it to the Leon County homeschooling office. All homeschooled students must submit annual evaluations to the county homeschooling office by the anniversary date given to them.

The following website provides helpful information about homeschooling in Florida: www.homeschoolinflorida.com/getting-started/. The Homeschooling Legal Defense Association may be of assistance: www.hslda.org. An additional website pertaining to Leon County homeschooling is www.tandl.leon.k12.fl.us/home_education.html. This link provides information about the specific county including contacts, county address, samples of the “letter of intent” to homeschool, sample of an annual evaluation form, and much more.

Diocesan Ministry Requirements

Sacred Heart Home Educators serves as a ministry of Good Shepherd Catholic Church, as SHHE activities pertain to the use of Good Shepherd facilities. All members then, are expected to complete the required training for participation in church ministries for the Diocese of Pensacola-Tallahassee.

1. A new member must contact the New Member Coordinator, Lori Sobeski, and request to be added to the SHHE ministry roster. You will need to give your full name and DOB. After you are added you will then need to comply with ministry requirements from Good Shepherd. All who desire to participate with SHHE on field trips, in a classroom or etc must comply with ministry compliance.

2. Because SHHE is a ministry of Good Shepherd, everyone must submit to a background check and fingerprinting. There is a $65 charge for fingerprint processing and fingerprints are valid for only 5 years. After 5 years, a new criminal background check MUST be completed. This consists of completing a new Criminal Background Check Authorization form and returning to the Good Shepherd parish office for processing. A new member must present the form to the front desk at Good Shepherd with a check for $65 and they will give information for a date to obtain a palm scan for the background check. Reprocessing must be completed one month prior to expiration of previous criminal background check. Download the Criminal Background Check Authorization form from http:// www.goodshepherdparish.org/re/ShieldVulnerable/STV_default.htm

3. Safe Environment Training through Armatus classes.

These classes can be accessed through the following website. The certificates of completion must be given to the New Member Coordinator (Lori Sobeski) to be kept on file. <https://armatus2.praesidiuminc.com/Armatus/security/anonymous/selfRegistration>

Discipline Guidelines for Co-op

All parents/teachers will require age appropriate behavior in the classes they teach. If a child is disruptive during and/or between classes and does not respond to teacher intervention, the student will be asked to wait in the hall with the hall monitor for 5 minutes. This removal from classes/playground activities should be implemented when the student is repeatedly noncompliant (more than 2 times) with a teacher's request, destroys or damages property, or is physically or verbally aggressive toward another person. When a student violates one of these rules, the teacher will inform the student's parent of the nature of the rule infraction and outcome of the situation in writing (via email) with a copy sent to the president of SHHE. If a child's behavioral disruptions are excessive (3 or more removals from class per semester), the student and his/her family will not attend the next scheduled co-op classes for one week. Continued behavioral disruptions may require further action to be determined at that time by the SHHE Board members.

Recognizing that not all behavioral issues are discipline issues, when a child's behavior is disruptive or distracting to a classroom, parents may be asked to either attend class with the child to govern their behavior or possibly engage in a discernment with leadership and parents to determine whether a particular co-op day is the best fit for that child.

SHHE Illness/Attendance Policies

Following the CDC guidelines, a child that has had a fever, vomit, and/or diarrhea within 24 hours before the scheduled co-op meeting or event should not attend. However, for the safety of all of our co-op families, if you have other children who have not yet experienced these symptoms, please consider not bringing your additional children for 48 hours or until the virus has run its course.

COVID Policy- SHHE will follow current CDC guidelines. This is to be taken into careful consideration due to pregnant mothers, consideration of our other SHHE families and those with fragile medical conditions at the co-op.

Morning Co-op (Academic Classes)

Inspired by the flourishing community in the early Church, Morning Co-op families cultivate our children in the Catholic faith and promote learning in the classical tradition through offering what we have and receiving what we need.

A group of Sacred Heart Home Educator families joined together in 2010 to follow a common academic curriculum. Originally meeting on Tuesday mornings, the "Morning Co-op" now offers academic curriculum classes for pre-k through high school students throughout the day on Thursdays. Each family brings their gifts, talents, and needs and receives a deep community of support, accountability, and encouragement in the monumental task of educating our children.

Our classical approach to education is richly integrated with our faith and embraces the three stages of learning: Grammar, Logic, and Rhetoric.

In the Grammar phase, students are encouraged to accumulate basic factual material in a wide range of subjects, primarily through memory work. As they progress to the Logic phase, analysis of those facts becomes the primary focus. This foundation culminates in the Rhetoric phase: the expression and application of those facts and analyses.

Morning Co-op is structured to support this classical approach to education. Children in PreK through 6th grade spend Thursday mornings together with their peers reciting memory work. In addition to the morning memory work, classes are offered in the afternoon on an optional basis. These opt-in classes are designed for Grammar students interested in additional instruction. Morning Co-op also offers classes for students in the Logic and Rhetoric phases. Middle school-aged children (grades 7 and 8) continue studies through literature analysis and Logic components. In addition, Morning Co-op includes subjects such as History, Writing, and Literature for high school-aged students, which require higher-level thinking, expression, and application, during the Rhetoric phase of learning.

Afternoon Co-op (Enrichment Classes)

Our Thursday Afternoon Co-op was loosely formed in 2002. By the fall of 2003 it became an organized activity of SHHE held on Thursday afternoons at Good Shepherd Church. The purpose of the Thursday Afternoon classes are to provide Catholic fellowship and extracurricular classes in peer-aged groups. The emphasis is extra-curricular in a Catholic environment.

In 2004, we were blessed with the addition of 11:45 am Mass preceding our Thursday Afternoon classes and Adoration throughout the afternoon. In 2006, we added the Divine Mercy Chaplet at 3:00. We truly aspire to be holy, prayer filled families supporting one another in our ministry of Catholic homeschooling for our children.

Since we function as a co-op we ask that all contribute to the workload. Everyone is asked to participate by accepting some responsibilities, as teacher, assistant, nursery worker, playground monitor etc. All give what they can, and the Lord fills in the gaps! The Thursday Afternoon classes committee addresses special circumstances on a case-by-case basis.

Decisions about the classes offered are made by the SHHE group at the Thursday Afternoon class planning meetings. One meeting is held each semester. The Thursday Afternoon committee is responsible for organizing the class schedule, assigning parent duties, handling registration and any other issues involving Thursday Afternoon Co-op.

Thursday Afternoon classes will be given a budget amount, determined by the treasurer and SHHE board to be used for supplies for the classes. Thursday Afternoon teachers may ask students to purchase books, art supplies or other items. This amount should be minimal and any questions should be directed to the Thursday Afternoon committee and the treasurer before the semester begins. Students will provide their own notebooks, pens, pencils and paper.

SHHE Field Trips

A variety of field trips will be offered throughout the school year to registered current members of SHHE. Prior approval must be sought for out of town guests/family members to attend. Some field trips have restrictions with regard to the number of attendees. In the event the field trip is capped, qualified candidates will be handled on a first come, first served basis.

Notification of upcoming field trips will be done through the group email, and there will be a SignUpGenius form for registration for each field trip. Each trip will have a closing date. You may alter your sign up until the closing date. Once the closing date occurs, you are committed to your reservation, and expected to attend. Most field trips have more people who want to attend than we have spaces for, and we maintain a waiting list. If something unexpected occurs and you can't attend, you must give the field trip coordinators adequate notice so we can fill your spot with others from the waiting list.

The organization hosting the field trip establishes the age/grade criteria for the event. Frequently this is based on insurance needs and as a result their stipulations must be followed. For the purpose of field trips, grade level will be determined following Leon County guidelines: K=5 years of age as of September 1; Middle school=11 years old as of September 1.

Some field trips will require payment. The amounts will be noted on the SignUp Genius. Payment is due upon signing up for the field trip. Payments need to be made via PayPal thru SignUpGenius. One "Last Call" email will be mailed to the group.

Refunds cannot be given. For plays with tickets, members can use the group website to pass tickets along to interested others if members find they can't attend. If you find you can't attend any other event, paid or unpaid, you must notify the field trip coordinator immediately. Field trips are primarily selected to enhance children's education. Students are encouraged to ask appropriate questions when invited by the host to do so. Adult questions should be resolved using a different forum. When attending field trips, students/parents are representing Sacred Heart Home Educators. Any negative behavior will not be tolerated. Excellent conduct is expected at each SHHE field trip and is the responsibility of the SHHE parent.

Google Group Guidelines

The SHHE Email loop was formed in September of 2002 and is our primary means of sharing information about SHHE activities and Catholic homeschooling among members.

By necessity it is a closed group, and membership is by invitation. We are a closed group for privacy reasons (sharing of prayer requests and personal struggles), and for security reasons. All of our SHHE activities and whereabouts are posted in the group emails.

Because our Google Groups is necessarily closed, families inquiring about homeschooling should be directed to our New Member Coordinator for assistance.

SHHE Google Groups group membership has been organized into the following three categories:

1. Active SHHE member – currently homeschooling and a dues paying member of SHHE.
2. Inactive SHHE member – past member of SHHE, who is currently homeschooling but does not participate in SHHE activities (co-ops, field trips). After the first year of being inactive there is a $10 fee per year to remain on the SHHE Google Groups. The fee will be given to our home school lobbyist.
3. Alumni SHHE member – past member of SHHE who is no longer homeschooling (children are in high school or beyond) who would like to continue their involvement with SHHE. This is an honorary category with no fee.

The board of SHHE maintains the right to conclude anyone's membership on the Google Groups group in the unlikely event that a member's actions are inconsistent with the mission of SHHE.

Google Groups group etiquette:

Emails should be consistent with the mission of SHHE. Our Google Groups is used to share information about Catholic homeschooling, our specific SHHE activities including our morning and afternoon co-ops, First Friday activities, field trips, special feast days and Masses.

If you have something to share with the group that does not pertain specifically to Catholic homeschooling/SHHE, then please put OT (Off Topic) in the subject line. Please carefully consider the content of OT sharing. Controversial emails are not permitted. If you take issue with a member's email, do not reply to the entire group. Please email a Board member and/or the member directly to address the email in question.

When replying to an email, please reply to the sender not to the group when appropriate. Look at the bottom of an email that you receive from the SHHE group, and there are two links, reply to sender and reply to group.

In 2015 SHHE added a web page for member and prospective members.

Sacred Heart Home Educators serves as a ministry of Good Shepherd Catholic Church, as SHHE activities pertain to the use of Good Shepherd facilities. All members then, are expected to complete the required training for participation in church ministries for the Diocese of Pensacola-Tallahassee.

This document is to restate the nature of SHHE provided in the welcome packet, in particular, how SHHE relates to Good Shepherd.

SHHE operates as an association of Catholic families. SHHE is not incorporated, and acts very simply as an association, or as a Catholic club. SHHE is not a part of the official Catholic hierarchy. Good Shepherd kindly allows us to function as a ministry of the parish – as stated in the packet: as SHHE activities pertain to the use of Good Shepherd facilities.

This must be understood as – only as SHHE activities pertain to the use of Good Shepherd facilities. Therefore, all other activities in which SHHE plans or participates, SHHE acts independent of diocesan or parish authority, knowledge, involvement or permission.
